REALCOMP II LTD. EXECUTES DATA LICENSING AGREEMENT WITH REALTORS PROPERTY RESOURCE® (RPR®)

FARMINGTON HILLS, MICH – Realcomp announced today that it has signed an agreement with REALTORS® Property Resource, LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of the National Association of REALTORS®, to bring the RPR® national property database to Realcomp's 11,000 REALTOR® subscribers.

 "Realcomp II Ltd. is very pleased to make Realcomp MLS data available through the RPR product in order to ensure that our REALTOR® subscribers have full use of all of the technology tools and features that the product offers," said Realcomp II Ltd. CEO Karen S. Kage. "Our Board of Governors approved moving forward with RPR for the benefit of its MLS Subscribers, and in line with the company's mission to deliver first-rate data services, support, and instruction to the real estate industry."

"The RPR application is a parcel-centric, national database designed to offer advanced technology tools and features that can be utilized to provide clients and customers with dynamic reports and analytics which can assist them in making better informed decisions when buying or selling properties," says NAR CEO, Dale Stinton. "The end goal of RPR is to provide NAR's 1,000,000+ REALTOR® members with valuable data sets such as tax assessment, public records, mortgages and liens, schools, flood maps, aerial and geo-point imagery, and demographics with the largest database of foreclosure data in the industry and aggregate that data with the local active and off market property information through partnerships with local, regional and statewide MLSs to benefit their REALTOR® members."
